Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 25, to Saturday December 29, 1759.

St. James's, December 29.

THE following Addreſs of the Dean and Clergy of the Iſland of Guernſey has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord De Lawar, Governor of the ſaid Iſland: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Clergy of the Iſland of Guernſey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Clergy of your Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey, are too ſenſible of the uninterrupted Happineſs we enjoy under the mild and auſpicious Government of the Beſt of Kings, not to join in the warmeſt and moſt ſincere Congratulations, on the repeated and ſignal Succeſſes, which have in every Quarter of the World, by Sea and Land, attended your Majeſty's Arms.

From Goree to the laſt glorious Conqueſt of Quebec, in every Enterprize, in every Action, as we can trace the ſureſt and unerring Direction of an over-ruling Providence; ſo we cannot but ſee and admire your Majeſty's Paternal Care of all your Kingdoms, as far as ſecond Cauſes can operate, in the Management and Conduct of this preſent War; a War moſt juſtly undertaken for the Preſervation of the Rights and Liberties of our Fellow-Subjects.

But as by Situation, we are foremoſt in the Danger of Invaſion, and by Profeſſion moſt expoſed to the Reſentment of exaſperated Papiſts, we cannot but in an eſpecial Manner congratulate your Majeſty on the laſt deciſive Victory over the French Fleet on their own Coaſt.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall make it our Study to inſtruct and confirm the People committed to our Charge, in the moſt ſteady Principles of Loyalty and Zeal for your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, and pray the Great God to crown your Majeſty's Labours with a ſolid and laſting Peace, and make thoſe Bleſſings perpetual to us and our Poſterity, in your Majeſty's Royal Line.

Given under the Seal of this Deanry, the 19th Day of December, 1759.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of December, 1759.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Proclamation of the 15th of May laſt, "For "giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied "Landmen to enter themſelves on board His Ma"jeſty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for "diſcovering ſuch Seamen as ſhall conceal them"ſelves; for pardoning ſuch Seamen as have deſert"ed and ſhall return into the Service; and alſo for "taking up all ſtragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 31ſt of this Inſtant December; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, that the ſame ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer—His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order that the ſaid Time be prolonged and extended from the aforeſaid 31ſt Day of this Inſtant December, to the 11th Day of February next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majeſty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the ſaid 11th Day of February next—Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Saville-Houſe, December 27.

This Day Prince Sanſeverino Albertini, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies, had a private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

And afterwards of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales at Leiceſter-Houſe.

To both which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Eſq; Aſſiſtant Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Hague, Dec. 25. We have received certain Accounts here, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, with a very conſiderable Body of Troops under his Command, arrived at Erfurth on the 18th. It is farther ſaid, That his Serene Highneſs was to be at Weimar the next Day, on the 20th at Jena, and on the 21ſt at Gera, where he will be within two Marches of Leipſig, and as many of Hoff and Dreſden.

Prince Ferdinand ſtill occupies his Quarters at Kroſſdorff, and the Blockade of Gieſſen continues. The Duke de Broglio is ſtill at Friedberg.

By the laſt Letters from Saxony, dated the 16th Inſtant, we are informed, That the Grand Pruſſian Army remained quiet in their Quarters of Cantonment near Willſdruff; That the King of Pruſſia was then at Freyberg, and Marſhall Daun at Dreſden; and that the Auſtrian General Beck, who had advanced on the Right Bank of the Elbe towards Torgau, was returned to Dreſden, ſo that there was then no Corps of Auſtrians on the Right Side of that River.

Whitehall Treaſury Chambers, Dec. 21, 1759.

NOtice is hereby given, That by the Reſolutions of the Houſe of Commons, ſuch of the Proprietors of the Tallies and Orders made out at the Exchequer by virtue of an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for enabling His Majeſty to raiſe the Sum of One Million for the Uſes and Purpoſes therein mentioned, as ſhall be deſirous of ſubſcribing to the Eight Millions, voted towards the Supply for this Year, Sums equal to the principal Sums contained in ſuch Orders, and ſhall, on or before the 8th of January next, produce their ſaid Orders, and ſignify ſuch their Deſire to the Caſhiers of the Bank, are to be admitted Subſcribers accordingly.

Navy-

Navy-Office, December 26, 1759.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of July 1758, to the 31st of December following, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf;

These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Monday the 14th of January, 1760, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, and continued the following Day, beginning at the same Hour: That all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Office for Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for Exchanging Prisoners of War, Nov. 17, 1759.

Whereas Desertions from Parole among the Prisoners of War now admitted thereto in several Parts of the Kingdom, have been and continue to be very frequent, and whereas there is Reason to believe such Prisoners have met, and do meet with Assistance from some of his Majesty's Subjects and others residing within this Kingdom, some of whom have been prosecuted to Conviction, and Prosecutions are carrying on now against others, and whereas adhering to the King's Enemies by giving them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm or elsewhere, or the Concealment thereof, are the highest Crimes; the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for Exchanging Prisoners of War, do hereby Promise a reasonable Reward to any Person by whose Means any such Prisoners of War shall be apprehended, or by whose Discovery any of His Majesty's Subjects, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of aiding and assisting, directly or indirectly, the said Prisoners of War in their Escapes from Parole, or of proving them to be so aided and assisted, or of affording them, directly or indirectly, or of procuring them to be afforded, Comfort and Harbour in or after such their Desertions from Parole, or by any other Means aiding and assisting them in such Desertions and Escapes; and the said Commissioners do hereby further give Notice, that all and every such Person or Persons so offending against their Allegiance and the Laws of this Kingdom, will be prosecuted as the Law directs.

General Post-Office, Nov. 28, 1759.

Whereas many Persons put Letters into this Office for His Majesty's Army in Germany, and omit to pay the legal Postage, without which they cannot be forwarded, This is therefore to give Notice, That a Bag for the said Army is dispatched from hence every Tuesday and Friday Night, and that the Letters will be received at this Office, and at all other Offices and Receiving Houses in Town and Country, upon Payment of One Shilling, Foreign Postage, for every Single Letter, and so in Proportion for Double and Treble Letters, and by the Ounce Weight at Four Shillings per Ounce, over and above the Inland Postage to London.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Post-Office, August 20, 1759.

Publick Notice is hereby given, That, for the Time to come, no Person whatsoever will be permitted to pass from England, in any of the King's Packet Boats, stationed at Harwich or Dover, without first obtaining a Passport from one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

All Persons, intending to return to England in the said Packet Boats, are in like Manner to produce a Passport from His Majesty's Minister at the Hague, or from His Majesty's Consul or Vice-Consul at Flushing, before they can be received on Board.

By Command of the Post master General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majesty's Ships hereafter mentioned, viz. NUMBER III. Of

The Pilgrim's Progreſs,

From this World to that which is to come:

Delivered under the Similitude of a DREAM.

By the Celebrated JOHN BUNIAN.

This Work will be elegantly printed in OCTAVO, on a new Letter and good Paper. The Whole will be compriſed in Fourteen Numbers. A Number of this Book, containing 32 Pages, will be delivered Weekly, Price only Four Pence. And all the Copper-Plates will be given Gratis in the Courſe of this Publication.

OF the Book which is upon the foregoing eaſy Terms offered to the Public, the Value is ſufficiently ſhewn by the Multitude of its Editions. It is too late now to tell the Excellence of a Work which has been almoſt univerſally read for more than ſeventy Years, and of which it may perhaps be ſaid with Truth, that no well-diſpoſed Mind ever departed from its Peruſal without general Reſolutions of a good Life, however ſome particular Opinions of the Author might be doubted or cenſured. The Allegory is ſo happily purſued, and Doctrine ſo well interwoven with Narrative, that the Book is read with Pleaſure even by thoſe to whom Pleaſure is the End of Reading; and the Sentiments are ſo ſtriking, and the Deſcription ſo juſt, that the Doctrine is not weakened by the Fiction.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in by W. Johnſton, in Ludgate-ſtreet, and by all the Bookſellers in Great Britain and Ireland.

To the PUBLIC.
